BLACKBIRD GALLERY

Xanthippe Tsalimi: Wonderlands

New York, NY, Dec. 09— Blackbird Gallery is pleased to announce Wonderlands, a solo exhibition featuring the work of Xanthippe Tsalimi. The exhibition will feature Xanthippe's landscape paintings and will be on view from Thursday January 9th, 2020 through February 9th, 2020. The reception for this exhibition will be by invitation only and you must RSVP to attend.

Xanthippe Tsalimi is a New York based artist, born and raised in Athens, Greece. Xanthippe's artwork primarily consists of oil paintings, of different scales and formats. Her work is an amalgam of environmental and atmospheric abstracts. Her paintings depict both imaginary realms and real places. Her images evoke moods, ranging from tranquility and solace, to turbulence and chaos. Her work is atypical of Mediterranean art; as it is timeless and reflective, human presence is strongly implied and yet void within the landscapes. An experience of places and emotions, much like a not so distant memory or of a time that may or might not have come to pass. The landscapes are neither vacant nor desolate, but rather strong in sentiment and very much alive in their moment.

During the past several years, Xanthippe's artwork has achieved notable recognition. Her work has been shown throughout Greece, Spain, France, Finland and within the United States. Xanthippe's most recent solo exhibition was held in the Summer of 2019 at one of the most prestigious art galleries in Athens; a show that drew much attention and praise. This show marks the first solo exhibition for the artist in Manhattan and the second time her work will be on view at Blackbird Gallery.
