BLACKBIRD GALLERY

2020 Vision

New York, NY, July, 31st— Blackbird Gallery is pleased to announce 2020 Vision.

2020 Vision will showcase 11 artists and the artistic visions they created throughout 2020. The exhibition will be on view in the gallery from Friday, August 21st through Sunday, October 4th, 2020. There will be no opening reception for this exhibition. Blackbird Gallery is operating by appointment. To ensure the health and safety of our patrons and the communities we serve, masks will be worn in the gallery and social distancing will be exercised. To book your viewing please email info@blackbird.gallery or call/text 212-380-1866.

“ The aim of art is to represent not the outward appearance of things, but their inward significance.”
-Aristotle

As we reflect on the past while looking forward to the future, please join us in the present as we celebrate select artistic visions created throughout 2020. In finding new ways to support artists and creatives during this challenging time, Blackbird Gallery is pleased to offer artworks available in our new online shop. New inventory will be on display virtually, allowing visits and acquisitions to be made in person or online.

2020 Vision features recent work from the following artists:

Lucas Bononi, Brandon Brown, Abby Goodman, Vincent Hawley, SeungTack Lim, Abraham Rosales, Laurel Lueders, Jennifer Prevatt, Benjamin Saulnier, Xueqing Yin, and Adam Zoltowski.

Works include photographs, paintings, prints, assemblage, mixed media, and more.

For more information about the exhibition or the featured artists, please visit us at www.Blackbird.Gallery
